HVAC SYSTEM GIVEAWAY – OFFICIAL RULES AND ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

1. Giveaway Period

The HVAC System Giveaway begins on February 15 and ends on March 17. Entries submitted outside of this timeframe will not be accepted.

2. Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for entry, the applicant must meet all of the following criteria:

- Entrant must be the legal homeowner of the property submitted.
- Property must be located within one of the following service areas: Las Vegas, Henderson, or Boulder City.
- Properties located in Mount Charleston and Red Rock are excluded.

3. Eligible HVAC Systems

The giveaway applies exclusively to a standard Amana HVAC system with a maximum efficiency rating of 17 SEER. Eligible system types include:

- Standard Split System
- Heat Pump
- Package Unit (Gas or Heat Pump)

The following systems are expressly excluded: inverter systems, high-efficiency systems, and any system exceeding 17 SEER. No substitutions or upgrades beyond the specified system types are included.

4. Required Entry Information

All entries must be submitted through the official website form and must include the following information:

- Full Name
- Service Address
- Phone Number
- Email Address
- Number of HVAC units at the residence
- Unit type (Gas or Electric)
- Location of the unit (attic, ground level, roof, etc.)

A photo of the existing unit's rating plate is strongly preferred for verification purposes. If a photo is not available, confirmation of whether the unit is gas or electric is required.

5. Current and Previous Customers

Existing and repeat customers are eligible to enter the giveaway. If a repeat customer is selected as the winner and has recently completed qualifying HVAC work, Pure Plumbing & Air may issue a refund for qualifying services at its discretion.

6. General Conditions

Pure Plumbing & Air reserves the right to verify eligibility and to disqualify any entry that does not comply with these official rules. No exceptions to equipment, eligibility, or date limitations will be granted without leadership approval.
